We also have Clay Pigeon and Rifle shooting packages available through Courtclough Shooting Grounds.

When are you open?

April - November, Saturdays and Sundays 10am-5pm for independent bookings, and Monday - Friday for pre-booked events and groups.
December - March; closed.

Do I need to book in?

The best way to ensure your place on our activities is to book in advance online: www.courtclough.ie/adventures

For parties, large groups and corporate events please email events@courtclough.ie

Do you have a pricelist?

Yes, please see our current price list, or visit: www.courtclough.ie/adventures

Do you provide food?

We have an onsite cafe which is always open for refreshments. We have catered packages available for parties, large groups and corporate events, please email events@courtclough.ie for more information.

Allergies can be catered for when notified in advance.

What should I wear?

As we are outdoors, we ask you to dress for the weather! We suggest comfortable clothes and footwear, and a pair of gloves often come in handy.

Are there any restrictions?

The minimum age is 7 years.

Height and weight restrictions apply.

Smoking on course is prohibited; we have designated smoking areas.

An instructor must be present at all times on course.

Please notify us of any health concerns you may have in advance; all participants must sign the Outdoor Adventures waiver before participating.
